Voluntary Water Restrictions for Auburn Residents

The Water Works Board of the City of Auburn enacted voluntary water restrictions effective June 13, 2011. The voluntary restrictions are based on even/odd street numbers. Watering for all addresses should be restricted to between the hours of 8:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. Customers with even numbered addresses should water on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Customers with odd numbered addresses should water on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. There should be no outdoor watering on Sundays. Voluntary water restrictions will remain in effect until further notice.

The Water Board is currently meeting well above normal water demands due to persistent drought conditions and above normal temperatures. The current drought began in late July 2010 and recently worsened to an extreme drought. The City of Auburn has an ample supply of water for public health and emergency purposes, but heavy irrigation has greatly increased demand. However, the Water Board is asking customers to be responsible stewards of our natural resources and participate in voluntary restrictions in an effort to control excessive water use and to eliminate the need for mandatory restrictions.

Customers are also reminded of the following steps to make the most efficient use of water year round and especially during voluntary restrictions:

- Check your sprinkler system timer and make adjustments as needed.
- Check sprinkler heads and adjust them as needed to keep water on your lawn, trees and shrubs and to keep water off of the street, driveway and sidewalk.
- Check your sprinkler system for leaks and make repairs in a timely manner to minimize water losses.
- Do not leave manual sprinklers or running hoses unattended. If watering manually, use a timer to remind you to turn off the water.
- Take shorter showers.
- Do not let the water run while brushing your teeth, washing your face or washing dishes by hand.
- Only run full loads of laundry and dishes.

The American Water Works Association defines water conservation as doing more with less, not doing without. By working together we can preserve the water supply, save money, and prevent the need for mandatory restrictions. For more information, please contact the Water Resource Management Department at 334.501.3060.

How Many Roommates Can I Have?

A Reminder of the City of Auburn's Residential Occupancy Regulations

As we welcome back students from the summer break, residents are reminded that the City of Auburn Zoning Ordinance sets forth limitations regarding residential occupancy in the City limits. Traditional residential neighborhoods are typically zoned to allow for no more than two unrelated persons to reside at an address. Apartment complexes, mobile home parks, and other multi-family housing units are properly zoned to allow for more than two unrelated tenants.

Not sure if you are in compliance with the Zoning Ordinance? Visit the City's website at www.auburnalabama.org/students. The site contains links to the occupancy limitations map, the City's Geographic Information System (GIS) site, a brochure highlighting specific information on the City's occupancy limitations, and information on how to report suspected residences in violation of occupancy regulations. Residential occupancy brochures are also available at the City of Auburn Planning Department, located at 171 North Ross Street, Suite 100.

Property owners found to be in violation of occupancy regulations are subject to fines and possible jail time, as set forth in the City of Auburn Zoning Ordinance. Residents in violation of residential occupancy regulations may be subject to eviction by property owners.

For more information, please visit www.auburnalabama.org/pl or contact the City of Auburn Planning Department at 501-3040.

Cooking Oil, Grease Curbside Recycling

The City of Auburn's Water Resource Management Department will launch a pilot program on August 1, 2011 in concert with the current Household Cooking Oil/Grease Recycling Program. This new initiative will provide Auburn citizens with another way to participate in the City's Household Cooking Oil/Grease Recycling Program by having their used cooking oil/grease picked-up at their residence.

The program is separate from the City's curbside trash and recycling pickup. The Cooking Oil/Grease Recycling Program is designed to help prevent the improper disposal of used cooking oil and grease in household drains which lead to sewer system blockages and sanitary sewer overflows.

If you would like to utilize this service, please call the Water Resource Management Department at 334-501-3069 to schedule a free curbside collection. Participants should place used cooking oil/grease into a sealed leak proof container and label it as "Used Cooking Oil." You will need to have collected at least one half-gallon of used cooking oil/grease to schedule a pick-up. The collection day for this program will be every Friday excluding holidays. Please call to arrange your pick-up during the week of your requested collection, and no later than 4:00 p.m. on Thursday. Please have your container placed curbside by 8:00 a.m. on Friday. During the collection, a new container furnished by the City of Auburn will be left for future use.

The following are items that can be collected:

- Cooking Oils - vegetable, corn, peanut, sunflower, canola, olive, soybean, flaxseed, or any combination of edible cooking oils
- Margarines
- Animal Fats/Greases - tallow, lard, butter, shortening, or any combination of animal fats
- Oils and fats can be mixed in a single container

Oil/Grease should not be placed in glass containers for pickup. Water, food sauces, gravies, large amounts of food particles, plastic, paper, motor oil, fuels, chemicals, and detergents should not be mixed with the waste cooking oils.

Used cooking oil containers that are left curbside on your regular solid waste collection day will not be collected. You must separately schedule a pickup for your used cooking oil/grease. Please remember to separate used cooking oil containers from other recyclables and call the Water Resource Management Department at 334-501-3069 to schedule a used cooking oil/grease container pick-up.

This is a residential program and is not available for commercial facilities.

Routes To Change for Trash, Recycling and Debris Pickup

Beginning August 1, 2011, approximately 8,500 of the current 12,505 Auburn households will be affected by a trash pickup routing change being implemented by the City of Auburn Environmental Services Department. The City's residential solid waste collection system has evolved from a manual labor-intensive collection operation to one that utilizes automated trucks for household garbage collection, specialized recycling vehicles for curbside recycling service and knuckle boom loaders for bulky/yard debris collection. A recent efficiency analysis of the current trash collection route identified the need to lengthen some current routes while reducing others. The Environmental Services Department will be providing door-to-door information during July 11-29 to allow customers time to become familiar with the new collection schedule. For more information, please contact the Environmental Services Department at 501-3080 or visit the City's website at www.auburnalabama.org.

Businessweek Names Lee County Among Best Affordable Places

Lee County has been named the Best Affordable Place in Alabama by Bloomberg Businessweek, the publisher of BusinessWeek Magazine. The publisher cites U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics that show the percentage of households in Lee County spending more than 30 percent of their incomes on housing is only 28.7%, with a median family income of $57,656. Also among the factors considered were low unemployment and high quality of education in the area.

According to Auburn Mayor Bill Ham, Jr., the ranking by the publisher demonstrates another reason why Auburn and the Lee County area have experienced steady growth. "Auburn maintains a high quality of life and we have a diverse local economy. We're proud of the contribution Auburn makes to the success of the area and we're proud to be a part of the 'best affordable area' in Alabama," Mayor Bill Ham, Jr. said.

Adventures in Art 2011: Twelve Bar Blues

The Adventures in Art program entitled Twelve Bar Blues will be held August 29 – September 2 at the Jan Dempsey Community Arts Center. Adventures in Art is a field trip component of a community-based, art education program for all fourth and fifth grade students attending Auburn City Schools. The program, in its twelfth year, is sponsored by the City of Auburn Parks and Recreation Department, Jan Dempsey Community Arts Center, and the Junior League of Lee County and is one of many programs the City of Auburn and its community partners are pleased to present for students from Auburn City Schools.

This year's program will focus on the preservation of Alabama Blues music as a traditional and contemporary art form. The program will begin at the Jan Dempsey Community Arts Center with a performance by the Alabama Blues Project (ABP). Students will then split into groups and attend four components of the program, each focusing on a visual arts project. Students will be introduced to Alabama folk artist Charlie Lucas, attend an interactive poetry workshop that will introduce students to spoken word poetry, receive a gallery talk, and participate in a performance workshop with ABP. Each component will relate to this year's Adventures in Art theme, Alabama Blues.

For more information, please contact the Jan Dempsey Community Arts Center at 501-2963 or Cari Philen, Art Education Specialist, at cphilen@auburnalabama.org or 501-2944.
